

Establishment and monitoring of a vertical reference system in Humboldt Bay for scientists, resource managers, and planners.

BLM Arcata Field Office Conference Room (check in at reception desk)
Thursday, October 21, 2010, 8:00-11:00AM

7:55	Welcome and Meeting Objectives	Todd Williams
8:00	Self-introductions – Who are you and why are you here?	All
8:10	Geologic/tectonic setting for Humboldt Bay	Todd Williams
8:20	Building a complete model of uplift for Cascadia; the CA piece	Ray Weldon
8:25	Questions/brief discussion	Any
8:30	Vertical Reference Systems, geodetic and tidal	Marti Ikehara
8:45	Questions/brief discussion	Any
8:55	Existing Vertical Control around Humboldt Bay	Don Campbell, Dave Ryan
9:10	Questions/brief discussion	Any
9:20	Break	All
9:30	Concerns with North Spit tide gage	Jeff Anderson
9:45	Questions/brief discussion	Any
9:50	Tide gages and relative sea level change	NOS CO-OPS (via phone)
10:00	Questions/brief discussion
10:15	Proposed Vertical Reference System: establishment, measurement, monitoring	Todd Williams, Marti Ikehara
10:20	Open discussion	All
10:50	Closing comments, Action items	Todd Williams
11:00	Meeting adjourned	